OCTOBER 19TH

Celebrating over 100 years of providing expert banking close to home. Investing in things that matter most to you.

On Thursday, October 19th, we are having an open house with light refreshments and a special event.

Join us at International Credit Union, Eagle River, Oregon.

Local banks are not always the best choice for your money. Credit unions are member-owned and operated for the benefit of their members. They are more likely to invest in the local community and provide personalized service. Find out more about the benefits of credit unions at www.creditunion.org.
